QUEEN OF THE MAY - - London's first May Queen

crowned with pretty ceremony at the Browning Settlement.

Picture.:-

This pretty little ceremony of Crowning the Queen of the May took place at Walworth, London,-

--England on May Morning ! The instruction to "Call me Early, Mother dear !" was carried out,--

--as the coronation hour was 7.a.m. The chosen queen is little--

--Doris Clarke, a pretty twin aged twelve.(PAUSE).

This was May day in--

--London, but in Paris, there was a taxi strike, and alarm for possible political riots.

Berlin paraded its Nazis amid apprehension.

Moscow riotously celebrated whatever they have got to celebrate about.

The Far East echoed with the noise of gun fire, strife, looting, and kidnapping.

Chicago indulged in some spectacular bomb-throwing, and building wrecking.

But back in England again, the young MayQueen of the Browning Settlement, Walworth, pursues her peaceful royal progress in May morning make-- --believe. Well, there do seem to be more tiresome places than Old England !
