

OUR FLYING PRINCE - H.R.H. The Prince of Wales uses his new aeroplane on his visit to Norwich and King's Lynn.
- Norfolk -

Picture: The Prince of Wales visits Norwich in his new-- --Dragon Moth plane. Having flown through a thunder storm to get--
--here. The Lord Mayor of Norwich--
--and civic officials are presented to His Royal Highness, whose--
--real business is to open the municipal-- --aerodrome. In his speech he said "flying is my main means-- --of transport". Before leaving Norwich, he chats with-- --the two heroes of the record non-stop--
--flight, Squadron Leader Gayford and Flight Lieut. Nicholetts.

EFFECTS

EFFECTS

EFFECTS

Dropping in at King's Lynn, the Prince is received by the town's progressive Mayor, Alderman Col. Woodwark. The royal--

--Norfolk Show is honoured by having the Prince as this-- --year's President. His two shorthorn exhibits have taken first prizes in their class.

EFFECTS

Heavy rain makes an umbrella necessary when the Prince returns to his plane en route for London.