Italy is leaving nothing to chance. Peaceful she may be, but her Army, Navy, and--

--Air Force all have an up-- to the minute organisation. The patriotic display by bodies of Carabinieri stirs the blood of patriotic Italians and also-- --supplies a good example of the dash and discipline of Mussolini's mounted forces. This regiment is one-- --of the oldest of Italy's army. It performs the duty--

--of a mounted police force in peace time, and in times of trouble, it's there when it's wanted !
