(1). Picture:- St. David's Day gives the Welsh Guards an--
--extra ceremonial parade. To Wellington Barracks--
--their Royal Colonel the Princess of Wales comes-- --through the fog to hand over the highly scented Welsh fruit, the leek to--
--the Regiment's officers. It's an old Welsh Guards' custom.

(2). Picture:- The world's most speedy train. It's the-- --railroad's answer to the aeroplane. Stream-lined, built-- --entirely of aluminium, it travels at--
--110 miles-per-hour.

On this test it has exceeded expectations. Practically vibrationless,--
--the Cooking Department never spills the soup down--
--the diners' necks. Well, not often, anyway !
And boy, are the eats good ?
How should I know ?

(3). Picture:- The little town of Bruck, Austria had more-- --than its share of revolution. Half the male population --
--are now prisoners, and the only place they can be kept in is--
--the local theatre. The stage is occupied by armed guards--
--ready to become actors in a drama--
--at a moment's notice. It's the best house--
--the theatre has had for-- --months. It's a rotten entertainment,--
--but nobody dare walk out !
