VAN HORSE PARADE.

BEST SINCE THE WAR.
650 FOUR-FOOTED COMPETITORS.

-Regent's Park-

Picture.:- On parade ! London's horse van drivers rally at Regent's--

--Park. 650 animals show off their--

--brilliant brass, shining vans and dandy drivers. Only one woman--

--Miss Kitty Heasman, of Kilburn,--

--sent an exhibit which is surprising in these--

--days of so many sporting women riding the high horse. Many rare Old-English--

--er - types - were present. British to the very eiger.

R.S.P.C.A. badges of merit were are honours--

--in this event. Sir Kynaston Studd, with Lady Studd,--

--and Lady Daresbury, watch the parade, and Sir Kynaston--

--presents the badges. "And now who--

--says the old boss, "is--

--dead ?" Get along, little Doki. Get along !
