Picture.:-

Yorkshire County cricketers inaugurate the North Leeds Club's--

--new pavilion.. Herbert Sutcliffe's XI play North Leeds. Sutcliffe--

--loses the toss and his side takes the field. The Leeds team is strengthened--

--by the inclusion of several county players. E.G. Croft, of Pontefract--

--takes a hand, and gets a hand--

--from the crowd. There's M. Leyland of Yorkshire County bowling to K. Hunter of North Leeds, who hits it for a single.

The proceeds of the Match are--

--to defray the cost of the pavilion, so it's a very good--

--job the rain held off until the spectators had arrived and paid.

These ladies are just waiting for a rain- 'beau'.
