MORE RECORDS.

CATHCART JONES AND KENNETH WALLER.

Picture.:-

The little green spee in the sky,--
--for which England has been--
--waiting for hours, swoops down over the Kentish Coast.
Only thirteen-days ago it left Mildenhall Aerodrome. Since then--
--it has been to Australia and back again. As the machine taxi--
--across Lympne Aerodrome, there is a sense of relief of tension.

The fliers, Cathcart-Jones and Kenneth-Waller, who the world has been watching, have returned. To these-- --two men we raise our hats. Cathcart-Jones,--
--and Kenneth Waller. After setting up eight records--
--in the flight Jones apologised for being late back.
Mr. Bernard--
--Rabin, centre, is the owner of the Comet, who made the--
--almost unbelievable flight across the world possible.
Hats off!
