

NORWICH FAT STOCK

SHOW.

HEAVY CATTLE IN FAVOUR.

---

Picture.:- The Norwich Fat Cattle Show has its 55th--

--annual birthday. It is this sort of show which condemns radio announcers--

--to talk about the price of fat cows and such like. If you are interested-- --in whether they are fat, or thin, the information is--

--that most of the exhibitors this year show--

--a tendency towards the smaller and not so--

--adipose. In the most important event, the King's steers and heifers took--

--one first prize, one third, and one fourth.

That is His Majesty's steer which took first prize.

And Jack Bladen is the show champion
