

POWDERHALL FINALS.

MARATHON AND SPRINT.

---

Picture.:- The final stages of the first running meeting of the season--

--at Powderhall, Edinburgh.

The start of the Marathon Race. Two score of men with stamina begin pushing themselves over the ground at an astonishing average--

--speed. It is also amazing how this event--

--draws the Scottish public. There must be--

--round about ten-thousand people here. The runners--

--are thinning out now, and unless he passes out R.W. Andrews--

--will, and does, win it. A cup and £40--

--are presented by Mrs. Woods,--

--and here's the 130-yards sprint, with J.MacPhilips coming in a fast first. He gets £100--

--for being so awfully fast. Is Mother's advice right ?
