(1). Picture- King William Street in the City of-- --London is about to lose its--
--King. The William IV Statue--
--is to be erected in the grounds of Greenwich-- --Hospital. Another stony city gent who is leaving his-- --present draughty stand is Sir Robert Peel--
--who goes from Newgate Street to the-- --Police College at Hendon.

(2) Picture:- And the Cambridge crew leave their warm rooms--
--to shiver in shorts on the bonny banks of the River Cam.
Oarsmen, whose names and rowing ability will be much discussed in the next few months take their boat--
--to the water for the season's first boat race practice.
Rain, hail and sleet are the dis-order of the day, while the coach, with megaphone, installs greater harmony and rhythm into the rowing blues.
