WELSH BOYS BEATEN BY SCOTS.

Picture.:-

The Welsh school-boys footer team, drawn entirely from South Wales--

--prepares to meet a team of Scottish loons. The Match--

--is at Wrexham. It's all done in the Wembley fashion, and four-thousand people have--

--paid to see the game. From the kick-off it was easy to see that the lads frae Scotland were the heavier, and the more--

--methodical in their play. However, our cameramen favoured Wales, and took up their positions near the Welsh goal. Wales soon scored a goal--

--and here it is !

And that is the first and--

--last they did score. Scotland, on the other hand, kept--

--on doing it. The Welsh lads made a good opening and--

--then became all polite and let the visitors score seven of the-- --best. I mustn't finish this commentary--

--without mentioning Hogg, the Scottish centre-forward, who played a great game, almost without a fault.
