

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

RACING AT EPSOM.

Pictures:- A crowded, restless, grand stand begins--

--to settle down again for the start of the--

--afternoon's big race at Epsom. Gordon Richards is riding the hot favourite, 'MONTROSE', which, by the way, is rather fractious in the parade. This City and--

--Suburban includes some very good--

--outsiders, although 'MONTROSE' is at such a short price. They are--

--off to the post. Glasses are--

--levelled. Necks are straining. 15 starters are getting--

--lined up not too easily.

He's got them, and --

--they're off. Several missed a clear get-away. "ROCK STAR" is one. 'INDESTRUCTIBLE' is another, and another I can't recognise. 'MONTROSE' is rather crowded, but Richards' experience will probably get him--

--out of the jam. 'FOXMASQUE' is in the lead, with 'LOST SOUL', and--

--'BRITISH QUOTA' hard on his heels. After the mile 'CARIBF' is pushing through. 'INDESTRUCTIBLE' has recovered his lost ground, and is now in the first bunch. At Tattenham--

--Corner the battle is by no means over. 'MONTROSE' is now third I believe. 'LOST SOUL' and 'CARIFF' are--

--fighting it out with Richards.

Swinging into the home stretch Richards manoeuvres his mount to the outside. A good move. With a clear run he passes, takes the lead from 'LOST SOUL' and 'BRITISH QUOTA',--

--and secured a win by about a length -- two lengths. Except for early unfortunate placing, 'MONTROSE'--

--I think was always the likeliest chance.

4, 11, 14. Those are 'MONTROSE',--

--'LOST SOUL' and 'BRITISH QUOTA', and Gordon Richards has again brought off a nice victory, for Lord Woolavington's stables. The latest news credits him with three winners to-day. Good Gordon!
