

NEWS IN BRIEF.

2-024141
141

(1). Picture.:- The King and Queen arrive at Hammersmith to open the new British Post Graduate Medical School. An institution said to be--

--the finest of its kind in the world. Patients--
--and nurses chance getting run over--
--in their anxiety to--
--give Their Majesties a warm welcome. The object of-- --the School is to give--
--Doctors an opportunity of keeping abreast of the most modern--
--medical knowledge, not only doctors of Britain, but of the whole Empire. Meanwhile--Florence--

(2). --Nightingale's anniversary is remembered at Liverpool. Detachments of the British Red Cross Society march past.

Lord Derby takes--

--their salute. Among other prominent people present is Lord Sefton.

The column is on its--

--way to the Florence Nightingale--

--Memorial, where a wreath--

--is laid to the memory of the Lady of the Lamp, whose work is ever an inspiration to those of her noble profession.
