

CLAY PIGEON SHOOTING.
JUBILEE TOURNAMENT.

Picture.:- Shooting 'em up at the White City. Flying clay--
 --pigeons are the--
 --targets. Easy to shoot at,--
 --but the devil to--
 --hit ! The Umpire writes hundreds of--
 --noughts, but occasionally--
 --somebody misses missing, and--
 --hits, and writing little o's--
 --steps for a second or--
 --two. Another--
 --round, and they mis - - er - - hit.

More birds catapulted up, and--
 -----(EFFECTS).

About three-thousand alleged pigeons--
 --are sent up and--
 --by gad, sir, potted--
 --off like flys.

Each competitor fires--
 --about 150 rounds.

Cigars, or nuts !

The slaughter over the special Jubilee Trophy--
 --(a very handsome affair) is won by--

Mr. T.H. Hughes, and presented to him by Brigadier-General Greitchley, C.M.G.
