

NEWS IN BRIEF

To-day His Majesty left Buckingham Palace for the last Levee of the season. Despite the exceptional rigours of the Jubilee period----

---the King looked fit and well, and rode with bare head in the State Coach to St James's under threatening-----

----- clouds, many hundreds of -----

---people wait for yet another opportunity of seeing their Sovereign. Their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Gloucester----

---were present at the function. We understand that His Majesty has now contracted a slight chill. All wish it will soon and easily be thrown off.

Mr Charles Brodie, father of two charming daughters, gives them both away at the same----

----time. The bridesmaids cross from their hotel to----

---All Souls Church, Langham Place, but the brace of----- ---brides cross the road by car, each carrying a -----

----train over her arm. Miss Barbara Brodie is to marry Mr Randolph Evans and----

--- Barbara's young sister, Elizabeth-----

--- married Dr John Howell-----

----There are now two pairs husband high---

---and odd man out.-----

----The quartette looks happy enough to break----

----into song at any moment. Maybe they will later on. Meantime, they just cut themselves a piece of cake.

This picture, coming just after a double wedding, has no----

-----special connection with it. It just happened like that, Twelve thousand people sit----

---under the open skies at Glasgow to see Joe Connolly of Bathgate administer a thrashing-----

----perhaps, to John Macmillan of---- Glasgow. The local loom, however, confounds the wretches and ---
