THE KING'S HOLIDAY.

DEPARTURE FOR WELL-EARNED VACATION.

Picture.:- A big crowd gathers outside Buckingham Palace to wish Their Majesties a good holiday. The King and Queen are to join the Royal Yacht, 'Victoria and Albert', and will remain afloat for a fortnight. Surely no holiday was more well-deserved.

(EFFECTS TO END OF SHOT).

There is no demonstration as the Royal Train pulls into Portsmouth Station. It is well-known that the King desires a peaceful holiday. The Royal Salute booms in the distance as His Majesty boards the 'Victoria and Albert', followed by the Queen and the Duke and Duchess of York. During his holiday the King will race his famous old cutter, the 'Britannia', in the Cowes Regatta. There can be no doubt that all loyal subjects of Their Majesties join in the hope that their holiday will be a thoroughly enjoyable one, and that the King will reap full benefit from his short respite from the cares of State.
