T I N Y T O T S P A R A D E .
SOUTHEND CARNIVAL EVENT.

Picture:- News-reels again give thanks to seaside resorts for staging beauty competitions, parades, and such likes. Southend obliges this time with a Tiny Tots parade, embracing the most advanced ideas. Mae West and the judge, for instance. And boy in bath Shirley Temple, perhaps, but Miss 1935, for certain !

The Mayoress, Miss Norah Edwards, presents prizes for costume precocity.

The Jubilee Coach and Miss Pamela Parnell being the lucky winner.

The Carnival Queen - complexion protected by umbrella of cavalier, leads the parade of very excellent entries. A complete aeroplane is one ambitious effort. This is the end of Southend's Carnival Week, which has given ten-thousand to charity.
