

GENERAL ELECTION.

SPECIAL.

In the last edition of 'Universal Talking News,' Mr. Baldwin spoke about the coming General Election. As we have no particular political axe to grind, we have invited Major C.R. Attlee, Leader of the Labour Party, to give his views.....

Mr. Baldwin told you that there are a million good reasons for voting national. There are eight or nine million good reasons for voting Labour. The unemployed - their wives - and their families.

Mr. Baldwin asked you to return again the well-tried statesmen - yes, tried, but found wanting.

Remember how Mr. Baldwin told you that the task of dealing with the air menace was a task for young men. Take him at his word !

The Government ^{gals}wants power by playing on the fears of the timid. They are trying to do it again ! We appeal to the courage and vision of the young.

We are living in a world of great dangers, and great opportunity. The old system is worn out. We must prevent the forces in use by modern arms from destroying civilisation. We must use them to build up a fuller and finer life for all.

War cannot be destroyed by piling up arms, but only by co-operating with all nations to use the wealth of the Empire for all.

Have courage ! Look forward, not back ! Realise the conditions of the world in which you live !

The Labour policy of socialism and peace can save this country and the world.
