MAKER OF A NATION.

PRESIDENT MASARYK RESIGNS.

Picture.:- From this house, President Masaryk drives out with his son to review his country's troops for the last time as President of the European State he has built and guarded through its difficult youth. For years since his being London

King's College Lecturer on Central European history, he has worked and slaved to re-create the Czech people and in 1910 succeeded in establishing the Czech Republic. He was hailed as liberator of the people and made President. On his retiral he nominated Dr. Benes as his successor.

Benes is a nature loving statesman, whose excellent work at the League of Nations, you may remember. To MASARYK, peaceful happiness ! To BENES happy European peace.
