LEAP YEAR PARADE

BATHING BELLES AS JUDGES.

---

Picture.:-

The birds catch the worms. As it's

Leap Year, Miami beach girls line up the beach life-guards and put them through a beauty contest routine to see how they like it. Who is the Adonis of the sand-boys ? Every little measurement counts, and these judges don't go by guess work, either.

It's a ticklish job, but the runners face the tapes like good game starters.

You may muscle in, but it's not fair to make eyes at the judges. Biceps sixteen. Bust forty-four. And so on !

This competitor - very muscular, but fed up - - oh ! - - My guess is that he's been a broncho-buster.

And here's the winner ! - of the Cup, - - and, well, the cup doesn't matter. Hold it for him somebody.
