GRENADIERS FOR EGYPT

2nd BATTALION SAILS.

Picture.:-

A few days ago His Majesty the King, as their Colonel-in-Chief, inspected the 2nd Battalion Grenadier Guards. Now the Regiment is embarking for service in Egypt, and Southampton quay is just overflowing with pathetic farewells.

With some ceremony the famous Colours, emblazoned with names of battles, in which the Guards came through, are carried aboard - - enjoy your trip! - - to inspire the Battalion

by its heroic history. (EFFECTS)

Last good-byes are shouted, waved, and wept by the mothers, wives, children and girls they leave behind them,

and the troop-ship glides away with its load of defenders of empire.
