

A bride arriving at Emmanuel Church in Forest Gate, London, attracted the notice of scores of photographers and hundreds of spectators. She was Britain's hurdles and long-jump record-holder, Jean Desforges; captain of our women's athletic team. ~~and~~ ~~xxxxxxx~~
~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~

The bridegroom was Ronald Pickering, Games Master at a nearby school. And as they left the church at the end of the ceremony --- the crowds surged forward to offer congratulations to the girl athlete of the year.

AIR FIREPOWER.

At Elgin Air Force Base in Florida, U.S.A. --- a demonstration of high-speed bombing. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ --- incendiaries pin-point the target with an accuracy that makes you feel glad it's only a demonstration. For saturation bombing --- <sup>one</sup> ~~the~~ giant B Thirty-Six <sup>now</sup> can drop as heavy a load, as a whole fleet of World War Two. A fascinating thought --- the kind of bombing that happened in World War Two is already old-fashioned.

GOATS.

From the Airport in Amsterdam --- one hundred young goats prepared to leave Holland for a flight to Israel. A total of fifteen hundred have been bought altogether --- and they will all be making the journey by air. For all these young emigrants --- this was the first flight; but they all settled down quite happily as the plane took off with a deep-throated roar.