FRENCH CABINET.

At the moment of speaking, it is M. Edgar Faure who is asked by President Coty of France to form a new Cabinet. The attempts to form new Governments in Paris, repeat themselves with such monotonous regularity and xpittipy rapidity, there's some talk of turning it into a panel game

SAVINGS.

In the City of Lenden, an Exhibition called "Savings in Action," was opened at the Reyal Exchange by the Lord Mayor, Sir Seymour Howard. In October last, the Duke of Edinburgh launched a campaign to enlist Two Millich New Savers; here Lord Macintosh, chairman of the National Savings Committee, announced that a figure of one and three quarter middions had already been regard reached --- leaving three quarters of a million, still needed to hit the target

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S STABILISERS.

The world's largest liner --- the Queen Ekizabeth --in dock for annual overhaul, this year is being fitted also with some outsize new equipment. These are the stablisiers, with their accompaniment of vast and complicated machinery --- which will reduce the ship's roll even in the most mountainous of Atlantic sease Stabilisers have already had great success in keeping ships on an even keel; they should try fitting a pair on the Stock Exchange. GEOFF DUKE.

Gooff Duke was first away in the Senior Motor Cycle Grand Count Prix at Mount Draitt in Australia. As usual, nowadays, the great British ace was riding an Italian machine

Before very long the champion had established a commanding lead. On a strange course --- competing against Australia's best --- Duke showed his class on his first appearance in New South Wales --- and he won comfortably.
