

In London --- Admiral Cassady of the United States Navy, presented a number of American decorations to officers and men of Britain's Royal Navy and Royal Marines. The awards were for conspicuous gallantry, devotion to duty and outstanding skill, in the war in Korea. ¹⁵

CAT MOTHERS FOX CUBS.

From Illinois --- a mother in the news is this cat who is bringing up three orphaned fox-cubs with her own family of two kittens. At present mother-cat is glad to see the baby foxes having a good drink at the milk-bottle. But she's brushing up her tree-climbing, for the day ^{when they grow up and} start eating. ¹⁶

KOTRI BARRAGE.

The Governor-General of Pakistan, His Excellency Ghulam Muhammad, cut the tape and pressed the button that started the waters moving. This was the ceremonial opening of the huge new dam known as the Kotri Barrage --- an addition to one of the longest irrigation systems in the world. ¹⁵

SANNTS PROCESSION.

Climax to All Saints Week at Seville in Spain, is a procession symbolising the Crucifixion. --- The burdens are so heavy, they can only be carried with great difficulty by the strongest youths in the city. ¹²

PAU MOTOR RACE.

Fifteen entries for the Grand Prix, at Pau, in France --- a one-hundred-and-ten-lap battle, with each lap approximately a mile and a half. The opening circuits, ^{featured} were a three-cornered duel between the Lancia, the Maserati and the Gordini. ¹³

At the 90th lap, Ascari's Lancia dropped out; and the result was an easy win for the Maserati, driven by Jean Behra. ⁶

APPLES.

It isn't very often in this world, that you get anything for nothing --- but here, in Piccadilly Circus, is a group of girls from Australia, making a free distribution of juicy apples, from the Commonwealth. ⁹ That's something to make a song about --- so with the aid of Piccadilly's Bros, they gave us a bite of William Tell. ⁵

BRITISH