PRIME MINISTER'S SPEECH.

8/7/55

At a dinner in London given by the English-speaking Union, Sir Anthony and Lady Eden were the guests of honour --- and the toast to them was proposed by Mr Attlee, who presided. In his reply, Sir Anthony spoke ~~of~~ about reports of a change of heart in Soviet Russia.

Among the company was Mr Lewis Douglas, former United States Ambassador to Britain and now President of the English-speaking Union in America. The ~~Prime~~ Premier went on to speak about the work of NATO.
