

The training ship Foudroyant --- the only one of the old wooden battleships still afloat in Britain --- is used for a two-weeks training course by the Girls' Nautical Training Corps. And this was the first visit of their newly-appointed commandant, Lady Pamela Mountbatten. ~~She was accompanied by her husband, Lord Mountbatten, and a number of other guests.~~

The new commandant went out in a launch, to watch the girls at work.

BULLFIGHT.

This is Bull-fighting --- in San Francisco! But death in the afternoon has been adjusted to suit American standards on cruelty to animals --- so there ~~is no blood.~~ <sup>is no blood.</sup> Instead --- Juanita, the Queen of the Mexican bullring, just plays the bull with her cape. But this bull is no gentleman. He <sup>spurns</sup> ~~spurns~~ the cape, and decides to give her one in the two-way stretch.

Juanita acknowledges the cheers of the crowd --- ~~and the bull goes off to apply for a job as a bus conductor.~~

Now the famous Portuguese bull-ring clown, Indio Apache, sets out to prove that a bull has a sense of humour. ~~It depends which way you look at it.~~ <sup>It depends which way you look at it.</sup> And the bull goes ~~off to apply for a job as a bus conductor.~~ <sup>off to apply for a job as a bus conductor.</sup>