

UNO.

7/20/55.

On the record is a meeting of Uno where the sensation was not provided by Mr Molotov --- nor yet by Britain's Mr Macmillan. It came from the representatives of France --- who did a dramatic walk-out from the General Assembly. The French action was a ~~prank~~ protest, against the decision of member states to discuss French administration in Algeria.

SULTAN OF MOROCCO.

Meanwhile our news in a flash camera flashes the news of a key figure in France's North African problems. In exile in Tangiers is the Sultan Moulay Ben Arafa. He's staying in a hotel while the workmen are repairing a palace for him.

GERMANS FROM RUSSIA.

To Friedland Camp in Western Germany, comes a group of high-ranking German officers --- back from prisoner-of-war camps in Russia. Among twenty-four generals, the best-known was General von Seydlitz who was captured at Stalingrad. Many thousands of German prisoners are still in Russia.
