

PIG CHEQUE.

16/3/56.

A customer of a bank in Nyasaland wrote out the cheque for his PollTax on a sucking-pig. Naturally this caused a bit of an uproar but the manager of the bank had to admit it was legal. So they put the paid stamp on little piggy's back and paid up. Now they're waiting till someone pays his Income Tax on a vulture.

PORPOSSE.

Here come the teams out on to the field -- they kick off -- shoot!

Come on --- let's have another!

It's just part of a water-show at the Marine Studios, Florida; and, with the assistance of a dog, the same porpoise shows the latest holiday method of going for a sail on the Skylark.

YOUNG BOXERS.

This was a boxing programme sponsored by the Columbia Athletic Club of Portland, America. Each man was determined to win by a knock-out, even if he bust his bleemers.

But they were absolutely evenly matched. Both were knocked out --- until somebody shouted "Toffee!"
