

These news pictures were taken in the danger spot of the Gaza Strip between Israel and Egypt, shortly after ^{an} ~~the~~ artillery duel had been brought to a ~~mix~~ halt by a cease-fire order. Settlers houses were damaged and there were several casualties. Children had been in the shelters for nine hours

Following the bombardment, Egyptian suicide squads are said to have made a series of sorties. ~~In~~

~~the~~ Road transport was attacked and railroad tracks were sabotaged. With Israeli officers, investigations were conducted by representatives of the United Nations. M

In Cairo, Colonel Nasser took the salute at a parade of war veterans, in which units of the Egyptian Army took part.

Coinciding with these incidents, King Feisal of Irak was inaugurating the Samarra Barrage --- the great engineering project of Tigris and Euphrates --- to control the floods/and bring irrigation to the barren lands of the troubled Middle East.