

FIRE BRIGADE MEMORIAL.

10/4/56.

At the Headquarters of the London Fire Brigade, the Archbishop of Canterbury walked in procession for the unveiling, by ~~the~~ Major Lloyd George, the Home Secretary, of the War Memorial to the London Fire Services.

~~It was~~ the Memorial to the ~~men of the~~ Fire Services of the London Civil Defence Region who ^{were killed} ~~gave their lives~~ in the desperate days of the blitz. When, night after night and day after day, death and destruction rained down from the skies; when days and nights of terror merged into one. They ~~were~~ never flagged nor failed; nor did they ever lose hope or courage.