

The submarine Porpoise --- first of a new class--- was launched at Barrow by Mrs Luce, wife of the Naval Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty. ^ The Porpoise has electric motors of an advanced design never previously used. ^ She will carry ~~a~~ crew of six officers and sixty-five men.

PETAÏN.

At the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, Mass was celebrated on the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Marshal Pétain. Afterwards, fighting broke out between those who remembered ^{HIM} ~~Pétain~~ as ^a ~~the~~ hero ~~of~~ ^{of} the First World War and those who remembered his surrender to Germany in the Second.

EAST GERMAN TUNNEL.

Russian soldiers stood on guard, while our newsreel cameraman took these pictures of a tunnel uncovered by engineers in the Soviet Sector of East Berlin. ^ At a Press Conference, the ^{SOVIET} ~~Deputy~~ ^{Deputy} ~~Soviet~~ Commandant had accused the United States of using the tunnel to tap the Russian telephone lines.

SNOW TRAIN.

At Houghton, Michigan, a new type of snow lorry is being tested for the ~~Army~~ Transport of the ~~Next~~ American Army. The power car alone is forty feet long, and fourteen feet wide.....and look at those wheels. G.I.'s complain that by the time they've changed a tyre, the weather's changed.

AUSTRALIANS AT LORDS.

Welcome to Australia's Test cricketers --- seen here for a loosening-up in the nets at Lords. ^ Captain Ian Johnson is smiling; and --- given a fine summer --- he is confident of regaining the Ashes.

Watching the practice is M.C.C. President Lord Alexander ^ as also are the inevitable small cricket fans, ^{waiting} ~~hoping~~ to pick up an autograph or a ball.

There's Keith Miller --- and here's hoping for a season ^{in which} ~~when~~ rain will never stop play.
