

CRICKET.

UNIV 2716

24/7/56.

Tommy Cooper and Norman Wisdom came out first from a host of stars who were playing a cricket match at Sudbury, to raise money for the National Spastics Society. Here's Norman doing a Laker on Bernard Lee.

Harry Secombe would have had a very fine innings if something hadn't happened to his middle stump.

As you see, this game bore no resemblance to the game they play at Lord's. It may have been that that gave Tommy a delayed-action shock.

ETON.

The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh were welcomed by the Headmaster and the Provost when they paid a visit to Eton College.

One of the objects of special interest was the new swimming pool which was opened last June. Previous generations of Etonians have bathed in the River Thames.

HOTEL COLLAPSE.

This is all that is left of a hotel in the Avenue President Wilson at Saint Denis, a suburb of Paris; which collapsed almost without warning with forty people inside it. Twelve were injured, two of them seriously. But no one was killed.

MISS UNIVERSE.

Five girls --- including Iris Waller, who was Miss Great Britain --- reached the final stages of the international beauty contest to find Miss Universe at Long Beach, California.

For the first time in the history of the competition, it was won by a girl from the United States.

--- who was crowned by Miss Universe of 1955: ---
