

TOUR DE FRANCE ENDS.

31/7/56.

After three and a half weeks of gruelling racing all round France, leaders in the world's most famous cycle race were packed in close as they neared the finish of the Tour de France.

Into the stadium of the Parc des Princes they pedalled for a grandstand finish. And the winner was a rider virtually unknown before the race began --- Roger Walkowiak; Now everybody wants to know him.

~~*****~~

NASSER.

Here's a section of the crowd that went crazy in the streets of Cairo, welcoming the return of President Nasser from Alexandria, after his declaration of the seizure of the Suez Canal.

At the Presidency, Colonel Nasser spoke to the <sup>excited</sup> crowd; ~~*****~~
~~*****~~
~~*****~~ a scene stangely reminiscent of the heyday of Mussolini and Hitler.