

To the Canadian town of Ste Anne de Beaupre, near Quebec, thousands of pilgrims from all parts of Canada and the United States flocked for the annual celebrations of the feast of Ste Anne, the mother of the Virgin Mary. Most of them were invalids --- for it is claimed that, in the past, many miraculous cases of healing have occurred during the Festival. In the evening, ~~x~~--- a candlelight procession. This year, <sup>reported cures</sup> two ~~cases have been reported.~~ They are being investigated, ~~_____~~

X KOREA.

From Korea --- news of internal trouble, in the land that recently was the battleground of opposing ways of life --- the clash between East and West. This was the end of a protest march to the Assembly building in Seoul, the Korean ~~capital~~ capital.

Cause of the protest was opposition to the Government of President Syngman Rhee.

GERMAN GRADUATION.

This was graduation day at the State Engineering School near Stuttgart in Germany --- celebrated by the successful students making a bonfire of their old manuscripts. Students do odd things on graduation --- and here they seem to have become <sup>temporary</sup> members of the Hopalong Cassidy Fan Club.

DEAL TATTOO.

At the Royal Marines Depot, Deal, men of the King's Squad gave a drill display in the annual Tattoo --- including display of rifle firing. As a grand finale, this magnificent body of men gave an exhibition of marching --- with precision, unrivalled anywhere else in the world.

X DIVING.

Gary Tobian, the title holder from Los Angeles, was first off the high platform when defending his title in the American National Championships at Detroit..... ~~_____~~ <sup>and</sup> he had to face plenty of stern opposition.

But this was the winning dive, that kept the title for Gary Tobian.
