

EGYPTIAN PRISONERS.

29/1/57.
return

News pictures from the Middle East show the ~~xxxxxx~~ of prisoners after the brief war between Israel and Egypt. ~~xxxxxx~~

~~xxxxxx~~ At the rate of five hundred a day, Egyptian prisoners taken by the Israelis were handed over to ~~xxxxxx~~ the United Nations Emergency Force. Their total was over five ~~xxxxxx~~ thousand. Israelis captured by the Egyptians numbered four ~~xxxxxx~~ ¹⁹/₃

BAILEY BRIDGE.

The famous Bailey Bridge --- first used in Italy and Tunisia in the Second World War --- has been given a peacetime job in the ~~xxxxxx~~ streets of the city of London. On a corner site in Hobborn Circus, it has been erected, as a temporary replacement of a small road, during building operations. It ~~xxxxxx~~ spans a sixty-foot gap. Its main purpose will be to serve as a route in cases of emergency ²⁰ ~~xxxxxx~~ ₃

17 seen
Tur Gov

GERMAN MINE.

London had another reminder of the war years when a German mine was found on the bed of the West India Dock in Limehouse. A Royal Navy Bomb Disposal Unit, ⁸ under Lt. Commander Guttridge, dealt with it in the careful, but apparently ^{CASUAL,} manner that became so familiar in Britain after many a night's blitz. It was a parachute mine of a somewhat unusual type. It was taken to Shoeburyness to be exploded out of harm's way. ²³ ~~xxxxxx~~ ₇

ALGIERS OPERATIONS.

N Helicopters were used for transporting French troops in Algeria, as part of a big operation against rebels in the region of Teniet El Haad. ⁸ ~~xxxxxx~~ ₄

One of the objectives was a mountain cave --- from which ~~xxxxxx~~ prisoners were captured and also a quantity of arms and ammunition. Shortly afterwards, the district was reported to be under control ¹⁰ ~~xxxxxx~~ ₅

PRINCESS CAROLINE.

In Monaco, the first important ceremony in the life of the new Princess took place in the ~~xxxxxx~~ drawing room of the Palace, in the presence of Prince Rainier and members of his family, and of ~~xxxxxx~~ Princess Grace's mother, Mrs Kelly from America. It was the signing of the register of birth, and the drawing up of the certificate. ¹⁷ ~~xxxxxx~~ So much for the official details. But for the unofficial record --- ₃

11/12

here are the ~~xxxxxx~~ first pictures of the latest representative of one of Europe's most ancient families -- Princess Caroline Louise Marguerit