BOURNEMOUTH v MANCHESTER UNITED.

2/3/57.

Bournemouth supporters were in lively form and the little Dean Court Ground was packed to capacity, for a match in which the Cup conquerors of Wolves and Spurs met Manchester --- and United kicked off. ^{EARLY ON CAMERON} ~~Here is an early~~ attack by Bournemouth --- ~~which~~ ^{CARE OF} ~~centred~~ but it was safely taken [^] by United's goalie, Wood. /////
^

Then bad luck struck Manchester when Jones, their centre-half, was injured. [^] And here, from a corner, is the first goal --- headed by Bedford. Bournemouth 1 --- Manchester United, nil. [^] And to say that Bournemouth were excited, is putting it mildly. /////
^

Manchester were still a goal to the bad at the interval --- but fifteen minutes after the re-start they equalised --- through Berry. /////
^

Then came another attack by Manchester: Berry shot --- and Lyons handled it in the penalty area. /////
^

Manchester 2 --- Bournemouth --- 1: [^] So gallant little Third Division Bournemouth went out of the Cup at Round Six; but they went down with colours flying --- to a team that played great football.
