

On behalf of Bournemouth and Boscombe Football Team, Harold Hughes, their captain, received a well-earned trophy. It was the Giant-Killers' Cup --- presented annually by the Sunday Pictorial. This Third Division Club won it for their magnificent achievement in defeating Wolves and Spurs, and getting through to Round Six of the F.A. Cup.

Now --- to Paris --- where, at the Colombes Stadium, France met Wales in the last rugby international of the season. And here ~~was~~ one of the French tries included in their total of thirteen points.

It was a tough battle --- and France played one of their best games of the season. But Wales played even better for a total of ~~nine~~ nineteen points.

For a glimpse of the Welsh team at their best --- here comes one of their tries from a brilliant run-through and passing movement.

And now to Belgium --- where English, French and Belgian athletes, and representatives of many other nations, took part in a gruelling cross-country race at Waregem --- "the Cross of the Nations". Among the leaders of the English team --- and leading the rest of the field --- were such great names as Frank Sande, Ken Norris and Heatley.

Sande was No. 13 --- and he was the winner. Second and third went to Heatley and Norris respectively; but, despite that, team placing put England no better than third.

And now --- back to London for the Amateur Boxing Association Championships of 1957. This was the final in which Fyfe beat ley in "Class A" --- fifteen years of age, and seven stone. Among the famous sporting spectators were Godfrey Evans and Matthews.

Here is J.W. Blower, from West Hendon, in his match against T. Lavin of N.A.B.C. Also in Class X "A" --- but comparative heavyweights at nine stone seven. Blower took a knock-down --- and although he was quickly back on his feet, Lavin won. Just a couple of incidents the road to the next Olympics.
