

BANK ROBBERY.

18/4/57

Here we show you one of the most amazing films ever seen on any screen.....a movie-camera record of an actual criminal hold-up in a savings bank in Cleveland, U.S.A. When a masked gunman with a girl confederate entered the bank, a girl cashier stepped on the button which set the automatic film camera working. Despite the poor photographic conditions, you see on the right of the picture how the girl bank robber scooped money into a bag behind the grille.<sup>25</sup> Another customer came into the bank at this critical moment, but another girl accomplice dealt with him and they made their escape covered by the gunman.<sup>32</sup> As a result of ~~this~~<sup>6</sup> this film, police soon captured the gunman and his two girl ~~girl~~<sup>5</sup> accomplices.<sup>5</sup>

CANADIAN HEAVYWEIGHTS.

At Kingston in Canada, here's a spectacular evening's boxing in the finals of the Canadian Army Championships. <sup>Heavyweight</sup> Mike Macready puts Ros Keleher down for a short count. Macready --- in dark trunks --- is the defending champion and he's in a class by himself. Keleher takes another fourpenny one -- and he's out for good.

FOIL CHAMPIONSHIP.

In Paris --- two thousand spectators watched the last stages of the electric foils championships --- and here's the Frenchman Claude Bancillon being defeated in the ~~first~~ quarter-final by A. Jay from England.

Jay came right through to the final, and here he met another Frenchman --- Roger Closset. Closset was last year's winner --- and this year he was delighted to win the Cup again --- although he's getting a bit sick of having to carry it about.

FOOD SHOW.

A wonderful display of food and a thousand different kinds of sauces and dressings, formed the mouth-watering theme of the Culinary Art Show in Chicago --- sponsored by the Cooks and Pastrycooks Union. With the exception of the furniture, everything in sight was something you ~~could~~ could eat including the chefs who were dressed up to

look like indigestion
