

Crowds were out in the streets to give them a warm welcome when Prince Rainier and Princess Grace arrived in Rome from Monaco. The main object of their visit was to receive, at the Vatican, the blessing of the Pope on their marriage. <sup>12</sup>/~~3~~ It is said that the Prince and Princess of Monaco may soon become King and Queen; and certainly the crowds gave them a chance to put in a bit of practice. <sup>6</sup>/~~6~~

SPANISH HOLY WEEK.

One of the most remarkable of all the world's celebrations of Holy Week, comes from the town of Arcos de la Frontera, in Spain. The Procession of Jesus of Nazareth, begins at two o'clock in the morning; and continues until midday. <sup>13</sup>/~~8~~

OLYMPIC WEDDING.

In the city of Warendorf in Westphalia --- the wedding of Hans Gunter <sup>Winkler</sup> and Inge Fellgiebel. And --- needless to say --- it's an occasion for horses; because --- as you will remember --- Herr Winkler represented Germany in the Equestrian Olympics at Stockholm --- and won the show jumpers' individual Gold Medal. <sup>17</sup>/~~10~~

A.B.A. BOXING.

LONDON - At Wembley Pool and Sports Arena --- the Amateur Boxing Association Championships of 1957....and here, for a sample, is the light welterweight contest between D.J. Stone of the Army, and John Warner of Hanwell. <sup>12</sup>/~~12~~ Cur Early

The Army boy turned out to have a fistful of dynamite. The referee stopped the fight and Stone was the winner. <sup>5</sup>/~~2~~

can y JHP

can y JHP