

In Vatican City, Prince Rainier of Monaco and Princess Grace were received in audience by the Pope. <sup>6</sup> His Holiness presented to the Princess two gold and ivory rosaries --- one for herself and one for her daughter, the baby Princess Caroline. <sup>14</sup> ~~8~~

As they left the Vatican, it was clear that the royal couple from the sunny Principality on the Riviera, are still in the top ten of the world's most photographable personalities. <sup>9</sup> ~~7~~

But on a ~~subsequent shopping expedition through the streets of Rome, it was brought home to them that~~ they were allowed enough elbow room for comfortable spending.

Further photo news from Europe concerns one of the world's outsize jobs of spring cleaning. In Salzburg every year, the rock face of the Monk Mountain has to be cleaned down by a team of specialists. This has been done every twelve months for the past two hundred and ~~eighty~~ eighty years. It's a precaution that has prevented a repetition of the disastrous rock fall that killed over two hundred people. <sup>21</sup> ~~6~~

Now to the United States. In the Municipal Zoo of Columbus, here is the first gorilla born in captivity and kept alive. Her name is Colo and she's now just four months old. <sup>10</sup> ~~2~~

This is Colo's father. And when she's taken to visit him by the wife of the Zoo superintendent, you can see the family resemblance. <sup>7</sup> Father was a bit puzzled ~~at first~~ to see his daughter wearing the funny clothes --- but that's the kind of thing that all fathers have to get used to. <sup>13</sup> ~~2~~

Now to Britain --- where the West Indies visiting cricketers came out to bat first in the opening county match of their tour --- against Worcestershire. And although it was a dull day, there was quite a bit of brightness in the innings of Ganteaume....who made a useful forty. <sup>14</sup> ~~4~~

Here's Goddard, their captain --- who scored twenty-seven. <sup>3</sup> ~~4~~

The West Indies declared for a handy first innings total of two hundred and ninety. ~~4~~ 3

In Worcester's first innings it was soon pretty clear that they were in trouble. ~~3~~ 3

Jenkins was caught Walcott off Valentine for three. ~~3~~ 4

Flavell was caught off Valentine for a duck --- and the result was a win for the West Indies by an innings and seventy-seven runs. ~~7~~ 2
