

With the majestic outline of the castle for a background, horses and riders were getting ready for the Royal Windsor Horse Show; reminding us once again that you're never too young to start learning to have a good & seat; ^{or learning how} ~~and how~~ to keep that good seat from being separated from a good horse.

The most spectacular item for the 1957 Show was the Musical Ride by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police --- the famous Mounties. Behind a display which they seem to carry out with such carefree ease, lie three months of hard work and non-stop rehearsals.

Last year the Windsor Show was one of the favourite occasions for young Prince Charles; this year he is missing it owing to that grial of youth --- ~~knaxifaxx~~ having tensils out.
