FASHIONS. 31/5/57.

Now back to Paris --- for a glimpse of some new summer and holiday fashions presented by the French fr designer Jacques Heim; from which it would appear that the fashionable beach wear for 1957 is based on the thing you put over a car when you haven't got a garage.

Alternatively

Here's the outfit for the fishing girl who is so sophisticated she throws back all the fish illuminates because she wants to catch a smoked salmen.

And for bathing wear, the styles follow the function the method made popular by publishers of novels. An attractive/ mater/jacket inxeneximaxyon theixyonxeneximpenexayonxeneximaxitaxeticated insidexita to persuade you that it's even more interesting inside.