PERHAPS

At Cairo Airport, Egypt's President Nasser said farewell to President Kuwatly of Syria, after a week of discussions between these leaders of two nations of the Middle East. During the changing line-ups, afxinexiral xearing the rest of the world speculates on which Middle East leaders is/friendly with which. kind Branchirthe Middle East leaders insurekran would also like to know.

> Another V.I.P occasion in the Middle East was this departure of King Saud of Saudi Arabia from Amman in Jordan. Seeing him off was the young King Hussein extraction two similaf visits have suggested the possibility of increasing division of sympathy between in the Arab world. TORNADO.

From Northern Italy come these grim news pictures of the havo wrought by freak weather. To floods and landslides must now be added the wreckage caused by a tornado --- an occasion outside the range of living memory in these normally-tranquil parts.

The storm lastedonly a few minutes --- but at least fifteen people were killed. Upwards of a hundred were injured, some seriously.

MOTOX CROSS.

Moto Cross experts from seven nations took part in these European championships near Stuttgart in Germany REPRESERIX representatives of Belgium, Holland, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Luxembourg, Austria and a home team from Germany.

The course was formerly a French tank area --- but it looks as though they wanted to turn it into an airport. The winner was Germany's Fritz Betzelbacher.